

Conjugating –IR Verbs:

- A verb infinitive tell you the action, but it doesn't tell you who's doing it.
- It is recognized in the English language by the word 'to' in front of a verb (example – 'to jump').
- In Spanish, a verb infinitive is most any word that ends in –AR, –ER, or –IR.

To conjugate an –IR verb, drop the –IR and add:

Subject Pronoun	Verb Ending (Spanish)
yo	-o
tú	-es
él, ella, usted, object (singular)	-e
nosotros	-imos
ellos, ustedes, objects (plural)	-en

Example: VIVIR

Subject Pronoun	Verb (Spanish)	Verb (English) yo	viv o	I live
tú	viv es	you (familiar) live
él, ella, usted, object (singular)	viv e	he, she, you (formal), object lives
nosotros	viv imos	we live
ellos, ustedes, objects (plural)	viv en	they, you all (plural), objects live

